GALERIE CHEVALIER, located in Paris's seventh arrondissement, specialises in antique, modern and contemporary tapestries and fibre art. Here, historic Oriental and European carpets are on display alongside Parsua contemporary rugs, created by Galerie Chevalier. Parsua has initiated the revival of the Persian carpet: hand-knotted and using hand-spun wool, natural dyes and no chemicals. Thanks to their timeless design and traditional craftsmanship, such objects stand the test of time. Pictured: hand-knotted 'Naïa' by Marine Prud'hon. Ring 00 33 1 42 60 72 68, or visit cbparsua.com
